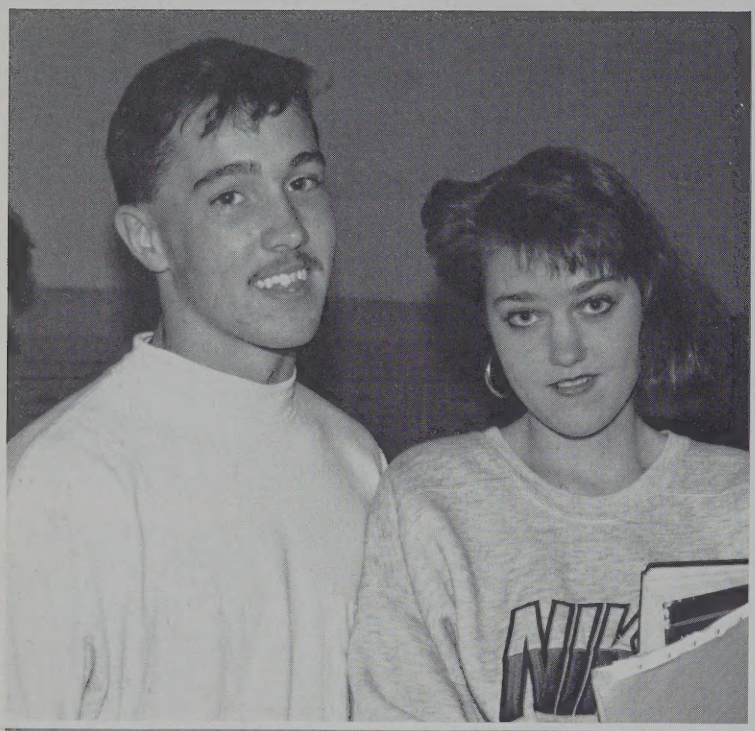
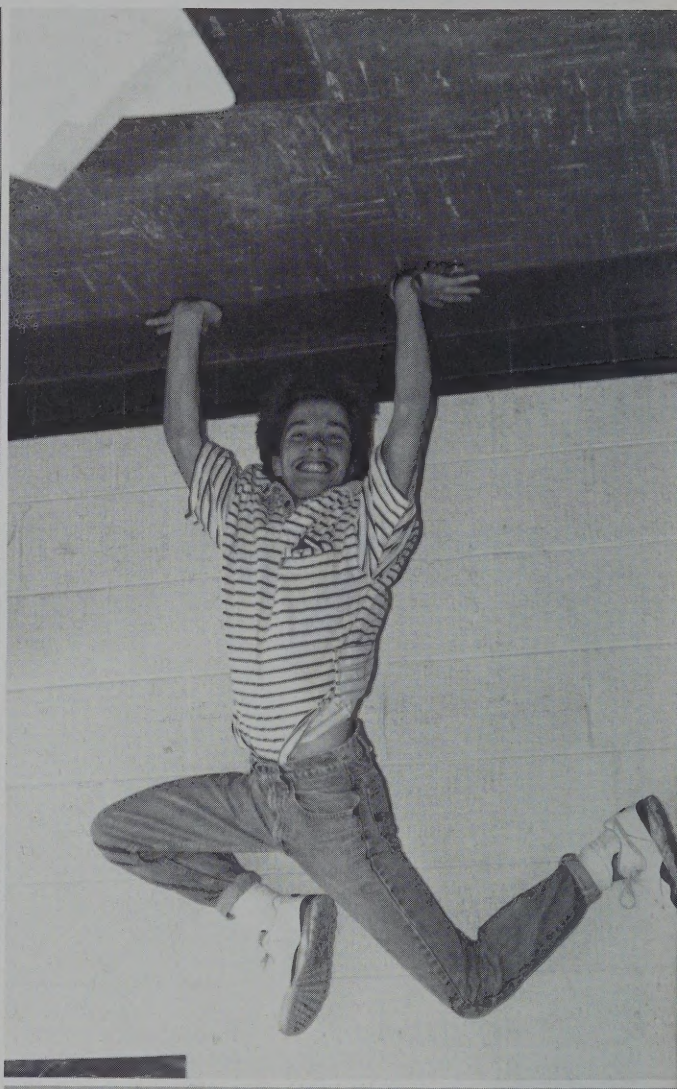
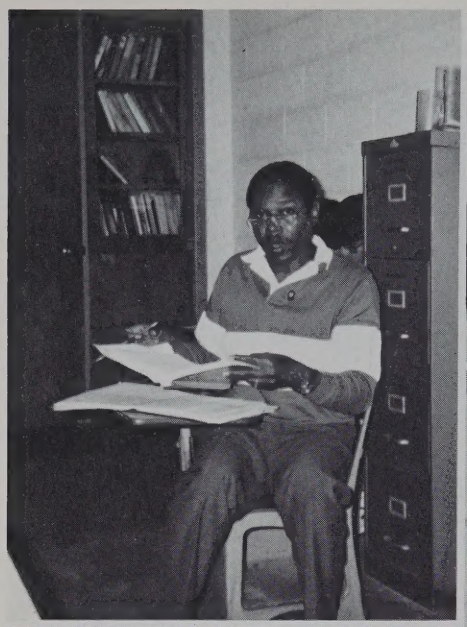
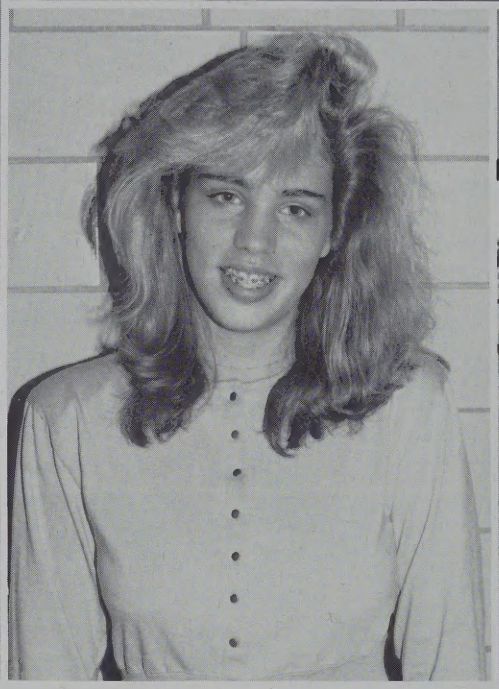
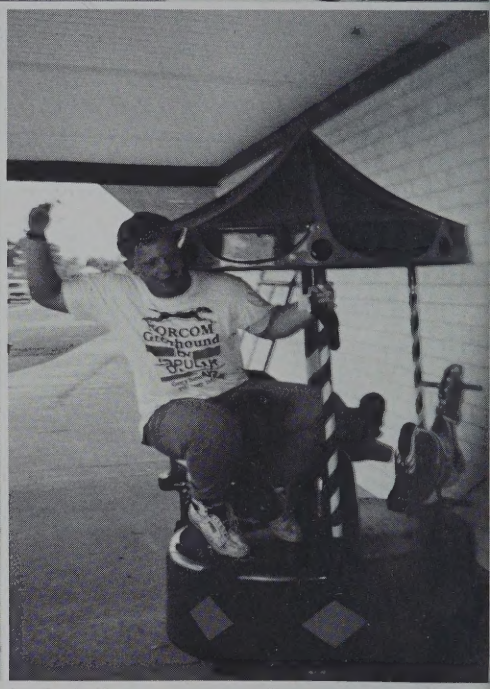
The Fun Side Of Cradock

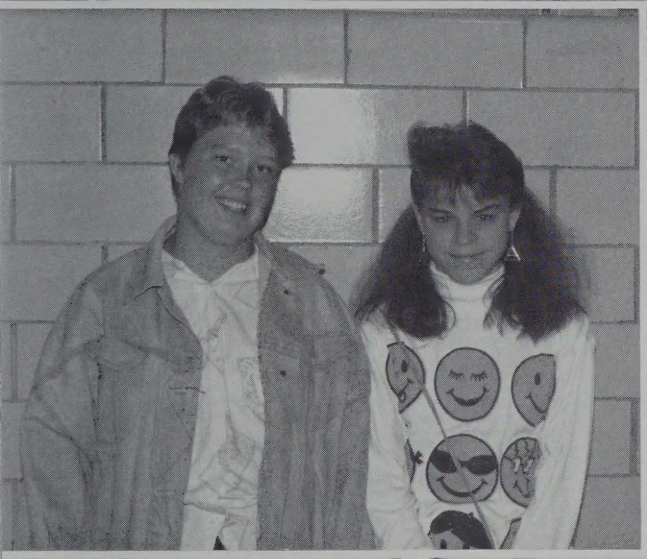










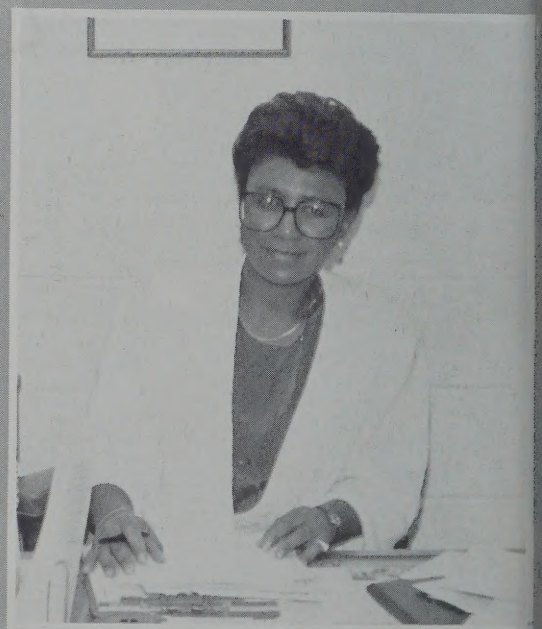


Helping . . . Understanding . . .

The Captain of the ship!

Mr. Hale congratulates Mario in his selection of the University of Tennessee.

Mrs. Ashby and Mrs. Williams — secretaries to Mr. Hale and Ms. Briley.



Ms. Lynn Briley

Under the leadership of Principal Raymond A. Hale, a graduate of Atlantic Christian College and the University of VA, are the qualified assistant principals David Joyner and Lynn Briley. Together, these three administrators helped build a solid foundation for a very successful school year. Their patience, guidance, leadership abilities, and understanding allowed this school year to be one of many accomplishments. David Joyner handles discipline in grades 10-12 and oversees teacher scheduling. Lynn Briley handles discipline in grades 8-9 and substitute teachers. This trio is always in attendance at PTA meetings, athletic events, and social functions here at Cradock High School. They provide the solid foundation on which our school is built.

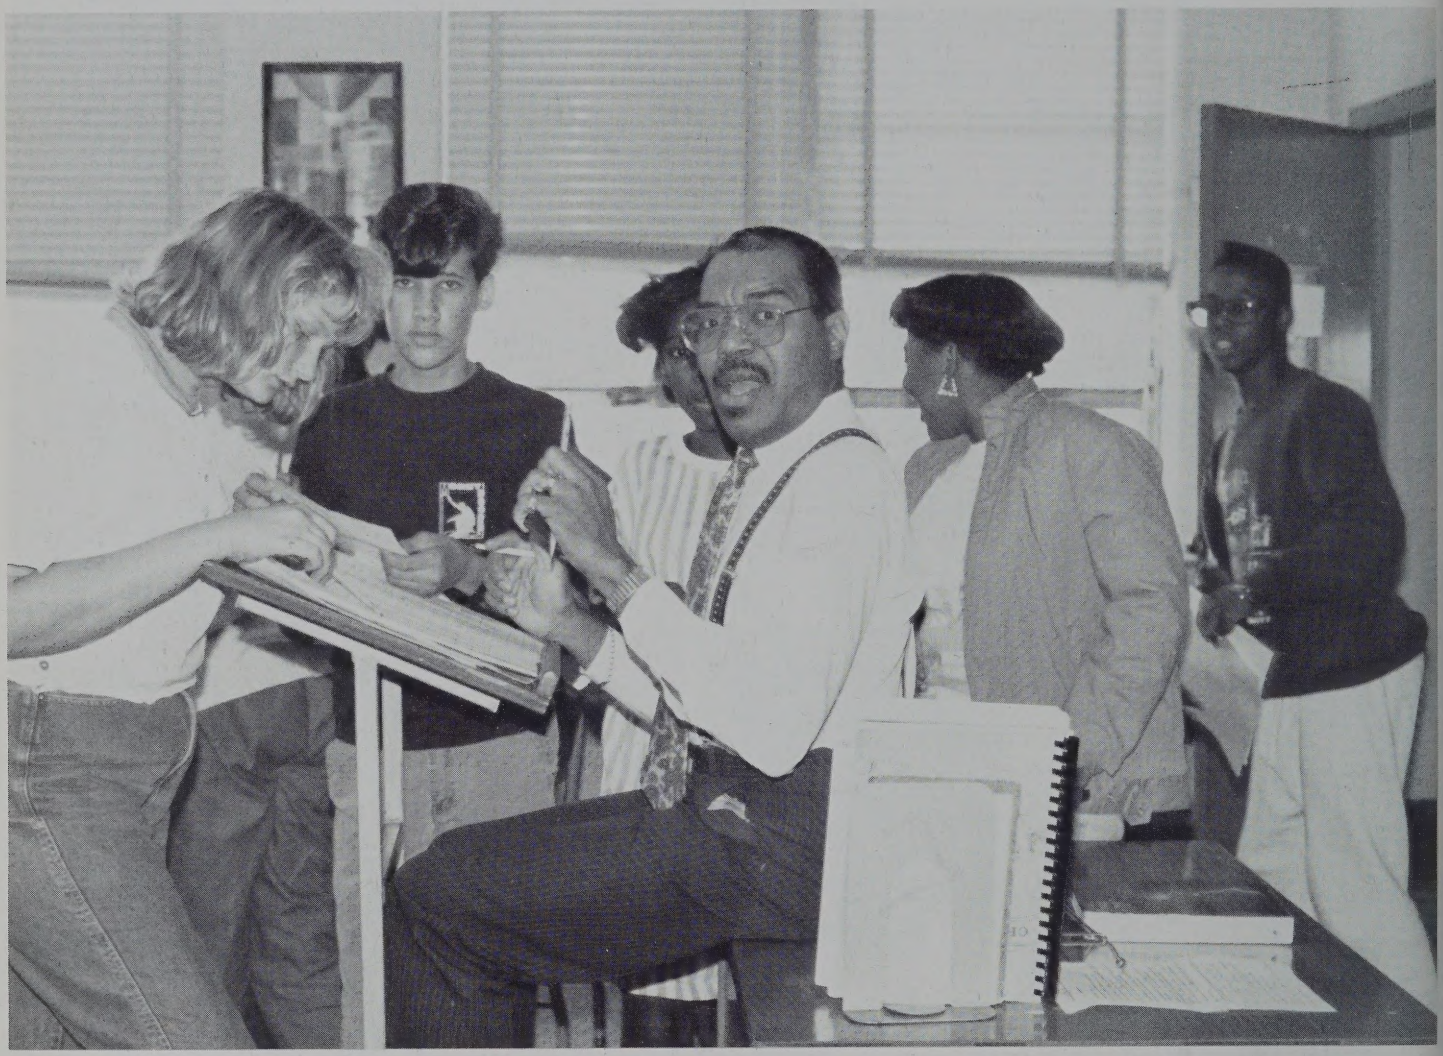
Caring . . . Guiding . . .

Portsmouth's Commonwealth Attorney Johnny Morrison, Councilman Herbert Simpson, Mayor Gloria Webb, Principal Raymond Hale, SADD President Herman Johnson, Sheriff Gary Waters

The administrators show their school spirit during SPIRIT week by dressing as students.

The administrators wishes the faculty and staff "Merry Christmas" with beautiful poinsettas.

FACULTY



THE YEAR

Teachers are casual too.

Teachers like to clown around, too.

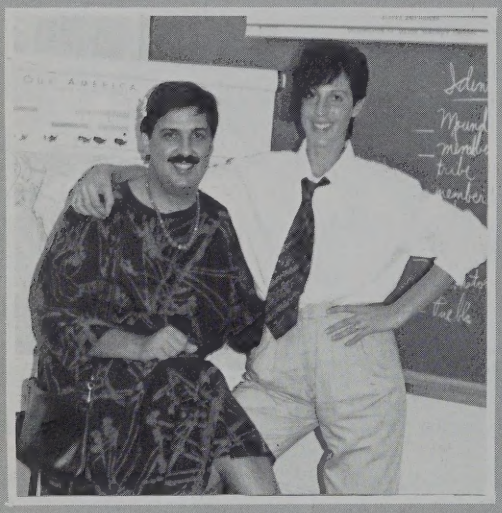
School Spirit

Spirit Week Was

The 1989 homecoming theme was "The Best of the 80's." This was carried out with Spirit Week:
Monday was Trading Places Day
Tuesday was Senior Citizen Day
Wednesday was Clown Day
Thursday was Teachers Day
Friday was Colors Day

The Golden Girls!



Boy or Girl?

This is what TRAITORS get!

Teachers on the loose!

The oldest Senior Citizen at Cradock

A Huge Success!

Casey and her man!

Steven ages with time.

Aftermath of the PIE!

The coolest clowns around!

The clowns of Cradock High.

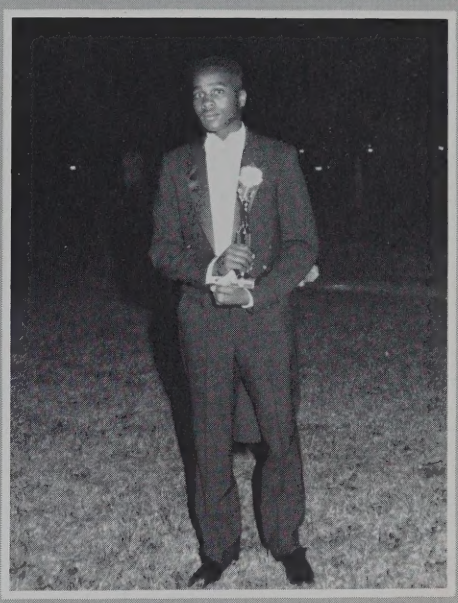
All smiles!

Lakeyta Henderson And Darrell Waddler!

Chosen As King And Queen

Crystal Burke and Garland Self

Kristin Jordan and Mike Posey



Mitchell Brunson and Crystal Jones (not picture)

Jaelise Mullen and Leonard Marshall

Tyronica Staton and Davell Coston

Keisha Ellis and Sinclair Simon

Rachel Stubbs and Danny Meeks

The time for the big event finally arrived. Running for Homecoming King was Garland Self, Darrell Waddler, Mike Posey, and Mitchell Brunson. Seniors running for Homecoming Queen were Kristin Jordan, Lakeyta Henderson, Crystal Jones and Crystal Burke. The 1989 Homecoming King and Queen were Lakeyta Henderson and Darrell Waddler. Juniors represented by Jaelise Mullen and Leonard Marshall. Sophomores were represented by Tyronica Staton and Davell Coston. Freshmen were represented by Keisha Ellis and Sinclair Simon. Eighth Grade class representatives were Rachael Stubbs and Danny Meeks.

The football game was a disappointment because the Admirals lost 21 to 0 to the Churchland Truckers. Kathy Stasiak and Sam Edmonds did a wonderful job as Chairman and Co-Chairman of the Homecoming Festivities. A special thanks also to Mr. A.B. Fane, who served as Faculty Sponsor.

The Best Of The 80's

The seniors prove that they are #1!

Smile!! . . . The Seniors!!

This year's annual Powder Puff game was again a success. The class of '90 won two years in a row; this year by a score of 24 to 6. The juniors were coached by Mike Bracy and the seniors by Brian Britton. This big game was held at Cradock High School on November 21 at 7:00 p.m. The object of the game is for the guys and girls to trade places. The girls played as the football players and the guys cheered them on! This year's Powder Puff Queen was Jeff Terwilliger and his escort was Chrissy West.

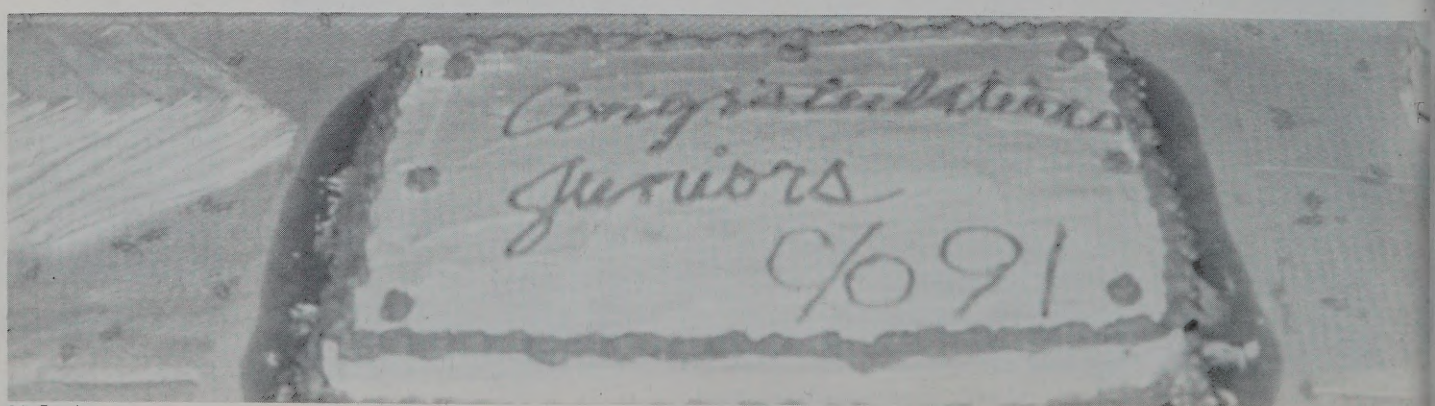
The Class Of '91 Receives

We've got it together!

Maybe next year Tim.

On December 14th, Junior Class attended the Ring Ceremony held in the Auditorium during 6th bell. Cradock's tradition is to turn each other's class ring 90 times toward the pinky finger and the 91st time it will be turned the opposite way to lock it. This final turn is saved for someone special. Purchasing a class ring is an expensive venture. They are purchased at school through Josten's for an average of $250.00. The catering class provided cake and punch for the reception at which everyone began turning their classmates rings.



Their Rings

Cindy stands proud while April turns her ring.

Pat finally gets his ring.

What do you mean, "it's not here ?!"

The Best Is

Party Hardy!

Love at first sight!

King Darrell Peterson and Queen Nikki Westerfield.

Ain't I purty!

Yet To Come!

Let's Do The Twist.

The Junior-Senior Prom was held at The Holiday Inn on the waterfront. The theme was "The Best is Yet to Come." The prom queen was Nikki Westerfield and the prom king was Darrell Peterson. The Junior Class spent alot of time preparing for this special occasion. Balloons filled the ceiling and the tables were decorated with candles and pretty table clothes.

We want to thank all students, sponsors, and faculty for making this year's prom a success. A special thanks to the junior class sponsors Barbara Rohr and Missy Martin.

The purpose of the NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY is to recognize outstanding academic accomplishments as well as LEADERSHIP, CHARACTER, and SERVICE. The requirements are to at least maintain a 3.0 average through the second semester of the 10th grade. Also, teacher evaluations must be satisfactory. This years activities included sponsoring children in the Children's Christmas Party, sponsoring inductions of the new members and the Portsmouth Operation "PICTURE IT PAINTED". The fundraising projects were selling candy to pay for the induction ceremony for the new members. This includes the academic monograms, the certificates, and the plaques. This club is sponsored by Mr. David Willett.

With This Ring, We Do Wed . . .

The Marriage and Family Class studies, analyses and discusses families. Students learn about the importance of communication among family members. Discussions are held about how to make personal decisions and how to evaluate those decisions. A mock wedding was held Oct 26, 1989 and the participants in the wedding were:
Brides — Sherry Adams, Cindy Koon, and Kim Dixon.
Grooms — George Hardy, David McNew, and Steve Hammons.
Bridesmaids — Laura Richards, Joanna Clark, and Kim Claybaugh.
Groomsmen — Gene Sykes, Marlon Milligan, and Ronald Brown
Minister — Gary McMalor
Candle Lighter — Judy Potts and Amanda Fales.

DECA

The Distributive Education Clubs of America (DECA) is the co-curricular professional organization for marketing students and is a vital part of the marketing Educational Program.

The goals of DECA are:

Vocational understanding — Provide marketing students an understanding of marketing, marketing businesses and skills necessary for success.

Social Intelligence — Provides marketing students opportunities to develop acceptable Social Competencies.

Leadership Development — Provides marketing students with the opportunities to serve in leadership capacities, and compete in the annual DECA competency based competitive events.

The emblem of DECA is diamond shaped with the words "Distributive Education Clubs of America" surrounding a wrapped package — symbolic of a job well done. The wrapped package and rays of sunshine symbolizes the close cooperation of a student, teacher, parent and merchant in assisting Marketing students to acquire a well-rounded education.

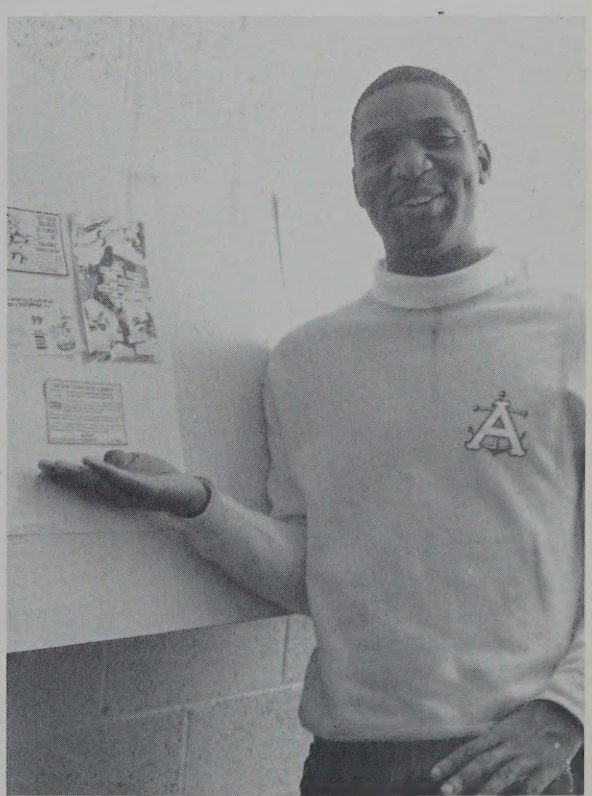
James Hall, Babara Rohr, Damion Bowman, Jeff Terwilliger, James Sampson, Kim Claybaugh, Christi Sawyer, Danny Morton, Shawn Perry, Danny Wilson

The purpose of the journalism class is to create a hands on learning experience to serve as the student voice. They sell ads to cover the $600.00 plus cost for each issue of the paper. The editor of the Shipmate is Ryan Hall. Reporters are Christi Sawyer, Damion Bowman, Kim Claybough, Danny Morton, Jeff Terwilliger, Shawn Perry, and Danny Wilson. The sponsor of the paper is Barbara Rohr.

Ms. Rohr and the editor discuss the future edition.



James proudly shows off the ads he has sold.

The Industrial Arts Club is organized for the study of technology. Technology is the utilization of materials, tools, machines, human ability and knowledge for the changing of man's life and environment. The Industrial Arts Club participated in the homecoming parade and won first place for Best Looking Float. Students learn how to use their skills to put together the craftsmanship that each possess to make art work or other objects they are interested in. The club allows the student to learn leadership responsibilities and high standards of craftmanship.

The main purpose of the EFE Club is to provide the opportunity for students to develop social skills, organizational skills and leadership skills that are needed to be successful in the world of work. They delivered a Thanksgiving basket to a needy family and sponsored a child through the SCA's Christmas Party for needy children. They sold M & M's and had a Pizza-/Bingo party at Wilson High School. The club is sponsored by Mrs. Annette Mays and Mr. Deans.

Upperclassmen Of The Arts

The Art Club is designed to facilitate the interest of students who enjoy art and art activities. The art club allows for time during the school day for these young people to come together to plan and participate in art related activities. This will allow encouragement and growth in visual art. Furthermore, this club, by maintaining an interest in visual art helps to substain the academic program through fund raising and organized brain storming. This club annually enters a float for Homecoming, and is sponsored by Mr. Donald Wilson.

The 8th grade Art Club provides opportunities to learn more about art and our local art community by taking field trips and attending workshops. The club also provides students the opportunities to enjoy art if they are unable to schedule it. The activities have included Halloween face painting, helping the Senior Art Club with the Homecoming float, Cradock's Christmas Wish Tree, and a trip to Chrysler Museum. The Sponsor of the club is Ms. Giacolone.

This year's Drama class won 2nd place in the American Smokeout Skit Contest. They performed an original skit written by Kim Claybaugh called "Kicking the Butt." In December they did a Christmas play by Christopher Fitzpatrick entitled "Christmas Angel." During March (Fine Arts Month), the Drama Class in conjunction with Art, Band, and Chorus held an asembly. The Drama Club was sponsored this year by Mrs. Connie Williams.

Timmy awaits the arrival of Christmas morning.

The Future Business Leaders of America, FBLA, is the vocational student organization for intermediate and high school business students. The co-curricular nature of FBLA — combining instruction, experience, and activity — makes the organization an integral part of the business program. All business students are encouraged to join FBLA and to participate in chapter activities designed to facilitate intelligent career choices, develop business skills, teach the value of community responsibility, and strengthen self-confidence. Based upon the FBLA goals, the activities are developed and a tailored to each chapter by its members, with the guidance of the advisors. Chapter activities involve students in co-operative school/community/business projects. The program of work includes activities in these categories: school and community service, leadership and promotion, business skills and knowledge, financial, and social. Any student who is currently enrolled in a business class may join FBLA.

Jeff slam dunks!

This year's basketball team was the best in Cradock High School's history. The Admirals were 16-2 in district competition and 18-2 overall, and went into the Southeastern District Tournament as the number 2 seed. The Admirals finished the regular season ranked 6th in the Commonwealth of Virginia. The team was also recognized in the USA Today Nation newspaper as the 10th ranked state team which combines public and private school ratings. The Admirals were led by 5 seniors — Diego Mullen, Kelvin Powell, who also were voted as team captains, Lorenzo Coltrane, Johnnie Harrell, and Eric Vaughan. Returning All-District Player Paul Sessoms led the team, the district and region in scoring with a 26.1 average. Other members of the Varsity Basketball team included: Juniors — Wilbert Key, Kelsey Lewis, Mike Jones, Damion Bowman, David Goodan and Sophomore Troy Mills. At printing time the Admirals had won the first round of the district tournament with a 64-57 victory over Norcom and were headed into the second round against Manor. If the Admirals win against Manor they will vie for the SDT Championships against the most likely opponent, Deep Creek. If this happens the Admirals will go into the Eastern Regional as the #2 seed from our district and will meet #1 ranked Maury High School of Norfolk. Coach Carroll was named "Coach of the Year" in the Southeast District. Paul Sessoms was named to the "All Tidewater Team" and Diego Mullen & Kelvin Powell were named to the "All City Team."

The 1989 Varsity Football Team was led by a new head coach, Jensen Baker. This year's squad had many fine athletes. Seniors on the team were Brian Britton, Johnnie Harrell, Eric Price, William Collins, Lorenza Coltrane, Diego Mullen, Gary McMahan, Jeff Terwilliger, and Jeff Baysmore. Leading the Admirals as team captains were Brian Britton, Eric Price, William Collins, and Lorenza Coltrane. There are also a few promising younger players such as Troy Mills, Leroy Brothers, Derrick Riddick, and Mark Stephenson. Earning Post Season Honors were Brian Britton, All City Offensive Guard, and Johnnie Harrell, All City Defensive Back. After a tough season, the Admirals are looking forward to next year.

J.V. Admirals Have Hopeful

The 1989 J.V. Football team consisted mostly of eighth graders. They were led by their offensive line — Patrick Beamon, Jonny West, and Dennis Hoffler. They also had a promising young backfield in Danny Meeks, Chris Warren, Mike Barber, and Derrick Odom. Most of the top players on this team played both ways and many of them will be varsity players next year.

EDUCATION

The Cross-Country Team

The 1989-1990 Cross Country Team consisted of three seniors. They were Mike Posey, Jeff Terwilliger, and Steve Gwaltney. Returning runners to next year's team will be junior Patrick Hall and freshman Michael Kennedy. Jeff placed 5th in the city track race. The team was coached by Dave Willett.

Track Team Has Tough Year

Chris and William wish each other luck before the big meet.

The 1989 track team at Cradock High had some of the best athletes in the area. William Collins and Vincent Farrow were the leading 100 meter sprinters on the team. Chris Warren lead the Admirals in the high jump. Throwing the discus were Gary McMahon and Mike Bracy. The top shot putters were Mario Brunson, Brian Britton, and Chris Lowe. Patrick O'Donnel and Raymond Goodman represented Cradock in the mile run.

Admirals Know Wrestling

The 1989-90 Wrestling Team produced an array of individual performances, but unfortunately was short on the individuals to keep the team in contention for the District Title. The team was led by seniors, Vincent Farrow, Steve Gwaltney, and Eric Price. The Portsmouth Holiday Wrestling Tournament was hosted by Cradock this year, and produced some fine wrestling by the Cradock grapplers. Joe Floyd and Eric Price placed second at 135 and 171, respectively. Mike Barber finished third at 119, and Steve Gwaltney finished fourth at 125. The team finished in a tie for first place in the City. In the District Tournament, Cradock had a good showing from its wrestlers. Amond those that had superb performances were Steve Gwaltney(125), Joe Floyd(135), Vincent Farrow(145), Eric Price(171), and Mike Bracy(Hwt).

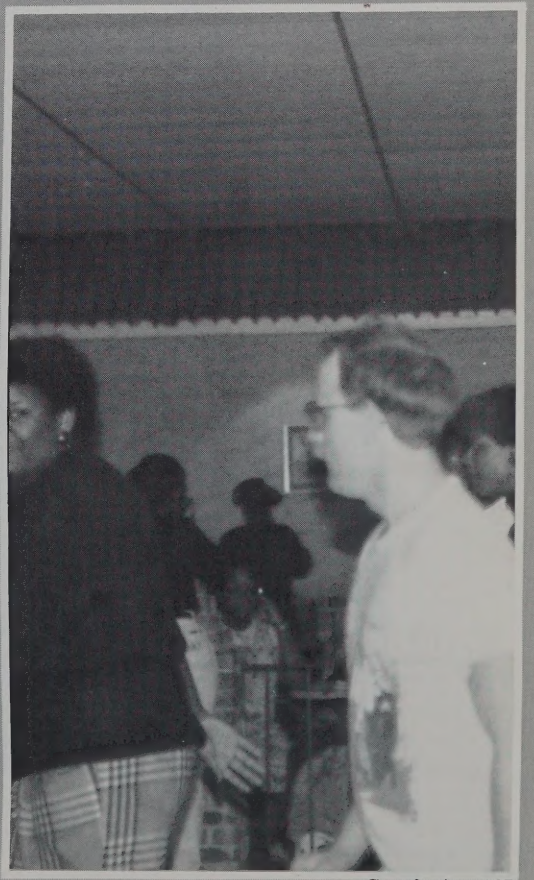
You should have seen Ms. Briley doing the "Electric Slide" on skates! Sound fun — it was! The FBLA plans to make this an annual event.



We Love You Mr. Pantas!

With deep pride, respect, and admiration, we the students of Cradock High, dedicate our "Admiral" to Mr. George Pantas. While we have been in high school, Mr. Pantas has proven to be an understanding friend as well as a teacher. We will always remember his helpful advice and interest. He is a motivator with genuine concern for all of his students. He has done a great deal to keep our school spirit high. Cradock High will never forget Mr. George Pantas — he will always remain an immortal memory.
